Dinner with Chris Skidmore

Member of Parliament for Kingswood

Politician and Historian, Chris Skidmore was born and brought up in Bristol. He studied History at Oxford, where he continued with postgraduate research. Chris has written several history books including: 'Edward VI: The Lost King of England' and 'Death and the Virgin: Elizabeth I'. Recently Chris published Bosworth: The Birth of the Tudors. He taught History part time at Bristol University and is an honorary research fellow at the University, he is also a fellow of the Royal Historical Society.

Since becoming Kingswood's MP in 2010, Chris has campaigned hard to protect the local Greenbelt, and has called debates in Parliament standing up for his local issues. He has sat on the Health Select Committee and the Education Select Committee. In 2013 he was appointed to the No 10 Policy Board. He is also Chairman of the All Party Group on the Greenbelt, Vice Chairman of the All Party Group on History and Archives and Secretary of the All Party Group on Disability.
